Ordinary Time

Good Morning Church - 25th January 2026 – 3rd in Ordinary Time

As we gather for worship this Sunday, Ordinary Time invites us to notice God at work in the everyday rhythms of our lives. This week also falls within the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, a precious opportunity to remember that, across traditions and denominations, we are one body in Christ, called to share good news, hope, and love together.

Our Gospel reading takes us to the very start of Jesus' public ministry, as he sets out his purpose and his passion. In the synagogue at Nazareth he declares:

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor." (Luke 4:18)

May these words encourage us to listen again for God's call — and to walk alongside one another, united in Christ, as we live out that good news in our communities.

Grace and peace, Phil

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

There are opportunities in each of our locations this week to take part in Week of Prayer for Christian Unity services.

One Body, One Spirit

For 2026, the prayers and reflections for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity have been prepared by the faithful of the Armenian Apostolic Church, along with their brothers and sisters of the Armenian Catholic and Evangelical Churches.

These resources draw upon centuries-old traditions of prayer and petitions used by the Armenian people, along with hymns that originated in the ancient monasteries and churches of Armenia, some of which date as far back as the fourth century.

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2026 extends an invitation to draw upon this shared Christian heritage and to delve more deeply into our fellowship in Christ, which unites Christians worldwide.

Paul's epistles stress the importance of unity within the Church, urging us to live lives worthy of our calling with humility, gentleness, patience and love (Ephesians 4:1-3). Ephesians 4:4 summarises the teachings of Paul about unity, emphasising here, too, that the followers of Christ represent 'one body and one Spirit', united in a single hope. This metaphor signifies the Church as a unified entity transcending barriers of geography, nationality, ethnicity and tradition. Paul uses the metaphor of the Church being the Body of Christ to describe its unity within the diversity of its members.

Ledbury - in Ledbury we join with the other churches in St Michael's and All Angels Church at 10:30am, where we are assured of a warm welcome as the heating has been fixed. Our Revd Martyn Sanders has been involved in helping bring the service together, and there will be activities for Junior Church led by our Margaret Jones. Note that refreshments are before the service. As SMAA is now in interregnum, we understand that there is a good atmosphere and a desire to improve church relations. lets see if we can all get there and take part.

**Bromyard **- At Bromyard Methodists we are hosting a WPCU Tea Service at 2:30pm, and have invited the other churches to take part. The order of service is available here.

**Hereford **- We were asked by Churches together in Hereford to host a service at 6:30pm, we look forward to welcoming other churches to this service. The order of service is available here.

Lent and Easter Resources 2026

Pause. Breathe. Make space for God.

Lent is bigger than giving up chocolate. It's about letting go of what weighs us down and being open to what lifts us up. The benefits last longer than 40 days – it's a way of life, and we do it together.

This year's Lent and Easter resources are designed to help you lead services that are rooted in Scripture and alive with hope. Each week focuses on a simple shift: letting go of fear, control, scarcity, or appearances, and embracing spirit, abundance, dignity, and joy.

Alongside worship outlines, you'll find weekly spiritual practices that help people pause, breathe, and rediscover what matters most – through simple habits that nurture faith beyond Sunday.

What's included?

These resources are being finalised and will start being available the week commencing 26 January.
