

Good Morning Church - 31st May 2026 - Trinity Sunday

This Sunday is Trinity Sunday — the day in the Church year when we pause to celebrate the mystery and wonder of God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Not three gods, but one God known to us in relationship, love and community. Trinity Sunday reminds us that at the very heart of God is love shared and love given — and we are invited into that life of grace, hope and belonging.

Rather than trying to explain God, Trinity Sunday invites us to wonder at a God who is known through relationship, love and presence.

In Psalm 8, the psalmist looks at the vastness of creation and marvels that God still knows and cares for us:

"O Lord, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth!" (Psalm 8:9)

As we gather for worship this week, may we know ourselves held in the love of the Creator, the peace of Christ, and the presence of the Holy Spirit.

With every blessing,

Phillip

Action of the Week - The National Conversation

Across the UK, something has shifted; the places that used to bring us together, now feel further apart. We've gone from understanding to blaming. From agreements to agendas. It's time to have a say on the country you want to see. Join the National Conversation — a UK-wide initiative asking: how do we want to live well together - and submit your views: Homepage - The National Conversation

June & July InTouch Magazine

The June & July InTouch Magazine is ready, and will be printed tomorrow, we do hope to have it in our 3 churches by Sunday.

In the meantime, the electronic version is here.

Edgy Learning

You will recall that one of our Methodist Churches was chosen to take part in an Edgy Learning research project - the results are out:-

Dear All

It has been a while since we were in touch. I'm really delighted to let you know that we have published the Edgy Learning project report on the Susanna Wesley Foundation Website. I really encourage you to have a look at it, and thank you all for all you have brought, the effort you have put in and wisdom and insight you have offered. You have all contributed something to this and we are so grateful.

The report can be downloaded here. <https://susannawesleyfoundation.org/edgy-faith-and-learning-project-report/>

Please do share with those who contributed through reflector teams and through interviews, focus groups and engaging with yourselves and us through the process.

You are also free to share this more widely with anyone you wish, bearing in mind that if you share it you may be connecting yourself to the project and therefore potentially risking revealing the identity of those in your communities who contributed.

We hope there will be further opportunities to connect, and we will be looking to have a more formal time launching the report and reflecting on what we have seen together. We will keep you posted.

Until then, many thanks and do keep in touch

Celebrate Action for Children Sunday

Inspire your congregation to make a real difference by celebrating Action for Children Sunday - a much-loved moment rooted in the charity's longstanding partnership with the Methodist Church, and a celebration of the incredible impact we make together.

A new worship outline to help you plan a service is now available to download. This year's theme, 'Everyone's welcome,' spotlights the charity's foster care services. Fostering can be the turning point in a child or young person's life. It's more than just a home – it's stability, hope, a loving environment, and the opportunity to thrive. Your support helps us provide this.

Join us on 12 July or whenever suits you. Hold a worship service or mark it other creative ways - a lunch, an afternoon tea, a cake stall, or a joyful mix of activities.

For a copy of the worship outline and other resources, download from actionforchildren.uk/faithFR, or contact our Supporter Services Team on 0300 123 2112 or at ask.us@actionforchildren.org.uk

Be part of something special and help transform the lives of vulnerable children and families.

Thank you.

At Their Pace: Learning From New Disciples

The Queen's Foundation Birmingham, England

Wednesday 24 June • 10:30 AM - 3:30 PM

Join us in Birmingham for a dynamic day exploring what it's like to journey with new disciples, how we encourage disciple-led faith formation, and what fresh perspectives can teach us.

This is an opportunity to think about the experience of journeying alongside new disciples; to reflect on how we support disciple-led faith formation; to listen to fresh perspectives, and learn from one another.

With a series of short presentations and round table discussions, you won't be passively listening to so-called experts, but sharing your wisdom, experience or frustration with other deep thinkers, church leaders, and Christian academics, and together discussing solutions and next steps.

Anyone can apply to present as part of the booking process. You may wish to present your current research topic, a practical idea you're exploring, or a knotty problem you're struggling with. Topics may be fully-formed, or still in early exploration.

All presentations must be on the theme of disciple-led discipleship accompaniment of new believers. We particularly welcome presentations on the topics of:

- Journeying with, and learning from, young adults
- Mutual travel and learning in A Methodist Way of Life
- Faith formation in small groups
- Spiritual direction and coaching

You're invited to share a 5-minute lightning presentation - a research idea, a practical experiment, or a tricky discipleship question - or simply join in rich table conversations about accompanying new believers. <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/at-their-pace-learning-from-new-disciples-tickets-1982883038546?aff=signpost>
