

Good Morning Church - 14th September 2025 – Ordinary 24

Dear Lynne,

Good Morning Church - 14 September 2025 – Ordinary 24

This Sunday, we are invited to reflect on God's relentless mercy—even when we wander or fail—as Jeremiah warns of desolation, and Paul confesses he was “the foremost” of sinners yet received overwhelming grace. In Luke's parable of the lost sheep, we encounter a God who rejoices over every single one who returns.

Bible Quote (Luke 15:6, NRSV-inspired):

“And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbours, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.’”

With every blessing as we worship together,

Action of the week - Join us for a

Fairtrade Fortnight High Tea Talk!

This Fairtrade Fortnight, we're inviting you to take a relaxing moment with your favourite cup of tea and connect with the people behind it on Thursday 25 September at 6pm.

Join our online High Tea Talk via Zoom with Fairtrade Foundation CEO, Eleanor Harrison, and Nancy Githaigo a Fairtrade tea farmer and manager of the Gatunguru Tea Factory in Kenya!

JOIN US FOR HIGH TEA

After a busy day, Eleanor and Nancy will sit down in the spirit of traditional British high tea with a Fairtrade brew to share stories, challenges, and hopes for the future of tea.

Hear first-hand stories from someone who grew and plucked your tea

Learn how your choices support climate justice and fairer trade

Ask questions and engage during dedicated time for audience questions

Nancy has worked with Fairtrade for over two decades on her family's land in Kenya. As Tea Farmer and Factory Unit Manager she is responsible for the livelihoods of approximately 100,000 people. Nancy has led many impactful projects supporting her local community, advancing women's representation and adapting to the challenges posed by the climate crisis.

Don't miss the chance to hear her story of dedication, leadership and deep commitment to her community and explore how your actions - big and small - are helping to build a fairer, more sustainable tea industry.

New Healthy Lifestyles Drop in's

Talk Community's Healthy Lifestyles Service are pleased to launch two new drop-ins at a central Hereford location, making it easier to fit healthy living into your schedule! The drop ins will take place every Thursday above the Midlands Air Ambulance Shop on Commercial Street.

Herefordshire residents can drop in for information, signposting and advice from the onsite Health and Wellbeing Trainer to get support with healthy eating, getting active, weight loss, reducing alcohol and stopping smoking. The bonus is that the drop in sessions are free to attend.

If you are ready to make some changes for a healthier lifestyle and like the sound of the drop-ins there are sessions taking place around the county (sounds good). Visit the Talk Community Directory for more information.

Small Sparks grants for community-led projects

The Small Sparks fund offers grants of up to £1,000 to fund small scale projects that bring people together, build local connections, and strengthen community resilience. Example activities could include creating a community garden, or shared space, running a neighbourhood event or starting a local club. Applications are invited from residents and informal groups and local community organisations, clubs, or groups.

Projects should be community-led, based in Herefordshire and delivered by 28th February 2026.

The fund is being delivered in partnership with Herefordshire Community Foundation and is funded through the UK Shared Prosperity Fund (UKSPF).

You can find out more, including details of how to apply on the Herefordshire Community Foundation website.

Library Home Delivery Service –

Books Straight to Your Door!

If you can't make it to your local library, the Herefordshire Library Service can bring the library to you! The free home delivery service offers up to 20 books or audiobooks every six weeks, chosen by you or selected to match your interests.

The service is available for adults and children who can't visit a library themselves, whether due to health, caring responsibilities, or other reasons. All you need to do is be a library member and apply. You can even reserve items online and have them included in your delivery.

Find out more and apply through the Home Delivery Service page on the Herefordshire Council website.
